

Please do not allow cell phones on airline flights. Besides the annoyance, I can see that they would contribute to anger issues among passengers. They would also distract passengers from hearing important announcements from the cockpit. Passengers on airliners are seated too close to each other for cell phones to be anything but a problem.